" A Few to Preserve the Best "

From the Prez :

January 30, 1994

Happy New Year everyone! Trivia Question : When is the first Ford car show this year ? Answer : April 23, 1995 at Loyal Ford in New Holstein, WI. I can't believe that it is only 13 weeks away. Well I know what Tammy and I will be doing for the month of March. Cleaning the '84 to within an inch of its life. Tam cringes when I tell her that but oh well, it'll be fun.

I trust that the news of our show changing locations left a few people with their open mouths. I know that because that was the reaction I saw as we were passing out the flyers at the January 7th Swap Meet. All things considered, the response was very favorable. Most people said they were looking forward to more ROOM and said they would be there. I'll keep everyone up to date on the Building status over the next couple of months. As of last week, Ed Witt's new facility is ahead of schedule. The majority of the structure is up and they should have most of the roof on in the next two weeks. The projected completion date is May 1st. What a way to kick off opening a new facility, with a great car show. Everyone at Ed Witt's is looking forward to the show and to a long relationship with our club. I know that everyone in the club will help support the new show location !

I recently had the pleasure of going to the Detroit Auto Show. It was kind of a long day, I flew out of Chicago at 7:00 am and flew back at 5:00 pm. But it was well worth the time. Ford had a great display in their booth. Leading the way was the GT-90. A 90's version of the GT-40. I'll tell you, it turned a few heads. It features a V-12 made from two 4.6 Modular cam engines. Ford also displayed a Concept truck called the " Triton ". This is a truck based off the New '96 Ford F150. I'll say one thing, it sure looked tough ! The other concept that was there was called the " Shostar ". How about a Windstar Minivan with a SHO engine in it. I might even consider a minivan if that was the case.

Well that's about all for now. I'll look forward to seeing everyone at the up coming Gimmick Bowl, State Fair Swap Meet or Club Dinner in February. Until Next Time Keep on Stangin !

FROM YOUR EDITOR

GOODIE GOODIE

Time to start collecting those trinkets for our car show Goodie Bag. We can use all the help we can get in this area. Please make an effort to come up with something. Contact your bank, insurance agent or anyone else who you deal with and ask them for some promotional item that they normally pass out for advertising. It has been my experience that most people I have approached are more than happy to oblige our cause. You can drop these off at my house or bring them along to a meeting.

LAST NEWSLETTER ?

If your 1995 dues have not been paid this will be your final newsletter. A notice has been included in this newsletter for all of those who have not as yet renewed their membership. If you

ADS FROM THE PAST

Assignment: make our cars more rust-resistant

Result: '63 Ford-built cars are better protected against rust than ever before

To tackle this assignment, Ford Motor Company engineers turned to zinc. Galvanized, or zinc-clad, steel is noted for its resistance to corrosion. It presented special problems, however, in automotive applications. It was hard to weld, difficult to paint.

Our engineers solved the welding problem. They found a process which eliminates the crystalline pattern on galvanized steel and produces a surface that will accept a high-quality paint job.

Now zinc is married to steel and used for vital underbody parts and rocker panels of Ford-built cars. The zinc coating forms a tough barrier to corrosive moisture—and if corrosion attacks, the zinc sacrifices itself through galvanic action, saving the steel.

Other avenues explored in the fight against rust also brought results: special zinc-rich primers to protect critical lower body areas, aluminized and stainless steels to extend muffler life, quality baked-enamel finishes that are more durable (and look better).

Added rust protection marks another step forward in Ford Motor Company's quest for total quality—and brings you cars that last longer, need less care and keep their value better.

Salt-water bath is one of tests used to check rust protection built into Ford-built cars.

REALITY CHECK

So you're the most avid Mustang enthusiast in the world. Your vehicles are models of perfection. Not an unidentified speck of dust settles on your machine. Or, you may be the ultimate gearhead. You build fast good handling iron for street and or racing use. Did you ever wonder why?

For some of us, a good part, is personal satisfaction. After that we are trying to impress our family, friends and neighbors with our abilities and/or financial status. The quest to "one up" the rest of the civilization is human. We don't really have to fight it. Just learn a little discretion.

Sometimes the loss of a loved one or close friend brings us closer to the answer. In this situation, how important does that piece of iron seem now? It will be a comfort if you shared your love of our hobby with others. If you built those machines and shared them and enjoyed them it will bring back good memories. On the other hand, if it became an obsession that only tapped your resources and robbed time from those close to you, that's not good. Achieving the perfect balance is pretty rough. All a normal human can do is try.

MAY 21st SHOW AND SWAP MEET

My personal thanks for all those wonderful years at Schwister Ford. Also fondest hopes for a long relationship with Ed Witt's, Venus Ford. To those who are a little disconcerted, believe me, it was simply a matter of location and space. Enough said?

The Falcon

Progress on "project Falcon" is slow but sure. Engine, trans. and front suspension are in. New spring perches were fabricated and installed. Gas tank installation is next. Then fuel lines and wiring. We'll keep you posted. "Keep on Stangin".
