"A Few to Preserve the Best"
Preservation - Restoration - Enjoyment - Dedication - Education

Hello Mustangers!

Holy Frostbite Falls Bullwinkle, April was a chilly month! We were able to comfortably get out and cruise a few days, but not too many. This may imply that the month of May will be better. I certainly hope so.

Coming up on Sunday, May 2nd of is our annual Ice Breaker Brunch Run. Be sure to get your money into Jack Winter and not miss out on another scrumpdiddlyumptious brunch in the beautiful Holy Hill area. As we mentioned last month the infamous Roger Nickolaus will be leading the pack on our cruise.

Our fabulous WEM All Ford Show is on for Sunday, May 23rd, 2021. There are a few openings yet to fill in assisting with our great show. We can use your support, so simply in go to SignUpGenius on the internet to sign up or call Don Schultz, 414-331-4946, and he will be glad to help you find a position on our energetic show team. Let's keep our show the BEST as it always has been.

Kitty's Run to the Lake Geneva area is coming up on Sunday, June 13th. The ponies will be gliding through the southeastern back roads to White River County Park. We will gather at the Hales Corners Park & Ride prior to the cruise. The team leaves the parking lot promptly at 10:00am. See contact information as to let Kitty know you are on board. See the flier inside.

What do you want?..... A Faster Horse!

The Drive to Drive

Spring is here and Milwaukee car clubs are revving up.

BY JOSHUA M. MILLER

As the snow melts and potholes are patched, auto enthusiasts who've spent much of the pandemic tirelessly working on their cars are eager to show off their sweet wheels. And some have taken their hobby to the next level by joining a car club to showcase their vehicles at area shows.

"Capt'n" Bob Trinastic understands the draw. For almost 15 years, he's co-hosted a show, Capt'n' Bob & Arlo, on Wisconsin Hot Rod Radio (WHRR) every Saturday morning from 9-10 a.m. on FONZ radio. The show's website provides a central hub to learn about area car and motorcycle events.

"We've got a very short season here because of our winter months, so we've got very dedicated car people here," Trinastic says. "People really take pride in their vehicles and we've got some very good car clubs. They're there to help. When there's somebody in need, they'll step forward."

For example, in July 2008, about 19 clubs contributed to a 50/50 raffle fundraiser to help grant a young girl with terminal cancer her wish to go to Disney World.

"When it came the time to call the winning number off, everybody walked up to this girl and handed her their ticket," says Trinastic. "So nobody won except her. She got all the money, which was just heartwarming."

After a year in which many events were scaled back or canceled due to the pandemic, people are ready to get back to normal, Trinastic says. "People want to get out into the world and enjoy their vehicles."

And he's encouraged by the number of younger people that are getting involved — something for which Trinastic heavily pushed via a WHRR Young Gun Award for participants age 29 or younger. "We want to get these kids involved to keep the hobby going," he says.

MKE Lifestyle got in the driver's seat with a few area clubs.

WISCONSIN EARLY MUSTANGERS

In the summer of 1979, a group of five locals came together with a shared passion for all things Mustang. The club currently includes 55 couples, although in most years the number fluctuates even higher.

For Don Schultz, the club's car show coordinator, the primary goal continues to be preserving the Mustang's place in automotive history, especially older models considered the first and most successful of the "ponycars," he says.

"It's dedicated to the preservation, restoration and enjoyment of early Mustangs [from] 1964 to 1973," Schultz says. "We've expanded with time to include all Mustangs to the current year. Ford has recognized the club and has allowed them to display at several Ford-sponsored shows.

In recent years, Schultz has noticed that early-model Mustangs are beginning to disappear and become even more rare as "younger members are buying later model cars, which are better engineered."

Wisconsin Early Mustangers has resumed monthly meetings and plans to hold its annual All Ford Car Show on May 23.

BREWTON CRUISERS MERCURY CAR CLUB

Brewtown Cruisers Mercury Car Club was founded in 1980 to highlight the uniqueness of Mercury cars — specifically those from 1949 to 1951. The club currently has 26 members.

"We started the club with the love for the style and popularity of the Mercury," says club president and founder Ron Maleu. "The design is more popular today than ever — it was far advanced at the time and sold like hotcakes."

Maleu proudly notes that each car in the club is unique. For example, he's celebrating 61 years of owning his 1950 Club Coupe — his first car.

"I bought the car May 7, 1960, for 80 dollars from my next-door neighbor," he says. "I've won over 60 trophies since 1980 and have been to over 400 car shows."

The club's vice president, John Hojnacki, owns a full custom chopped 1950 Mercury that was recently featured in Kustoms Illustrated magazine. "It's one of the most beautiful customs I have ever seen," says Maleu.

Despite the pandemic, Brewtown Cruisers has remained strong via its newsletter, picnics and car shows. The club is planning its 40th annual car show at the Nite Owl Drive-In. brewtowncruisers.com

WISCONSIN JAGUARS LIMITED

In 1979, co-workers and Jaguar E-Type owners Dick Diercksmeier and Glenn Paringer realized there was a need in the area to highlight the luxury car brand, so they started a club and sought out other Jaguar enthusiasts. The two remain in the group, which has grown a membership of between 90 and 100, with more than 200 Jaguars.

In 1985, the association became affiliated with Jaguar Clubs of North America, which allowed them to work with other clubs around the country and compete in regional and national level competitions.

Current president Mike Korneli seeks to continue that vision and "make others aware of the marque, preserve the history of Jaguar, share our passion with others and form friendships with other enthusiasts," he says.

"The Jaguars owned by our members have ranged from a 1934 SS1 Coupe to the current F-Type R, and from the famous 1937 SS-100 Roadster through the XK-120, -140 and -150 series, all of the E-Types, and almost all of the Saloons and Sedans produced," Korneli says.

The club produced a few outdoor events during the pandemic; a full calendar of events is on the fast track for 2021.

THE LOSERS CAR CLUB OF WISCONSIN

In 1999, five car enthusiasts — Phil Barske, Gary Weber, Jeff Wieland, Greg Barske and Tom Mitchell — met at a local car show and discussed how they could share their passion for cars.

Phil Barske's wife at the time called them a bunch of losers because they had never won a trophy at a show, so they decided to use that as their club name. Today the Losers claim 87 members (plus their wives and girlfriends, the Loserettes).

"It's a chance for friends to get together, show off our cars at car shows, become involved in fundraisers, help each other out when questions arise pertaining to our cars, and enjoy year-round social gatherings and sharing our vintage cars with various nursing homes and rehabilitation centers," Barske says.

The club is open to a variety of car models. Some of the notable cars showcased include Gary Weber's 1937 Ford coupe, Phil Barske's 1938 Nash coupe, Jiggs Lindhorst's 1934 Pontiac coupe, Dick Duston's 1933 Plymouth coupe; Jerry Ferry's 1924 Model T roadster and Nicole Hoffman's 1957 GMC Truck.

Hoffman took over as lead organizer for club events and social outings from Don Holle in recent years. "She has been instrumental in involving the Loserettes in all of the Loser Car Club events," says Barske.

While most of the club's events in 2020 were impacted by COVID-19, they hope to hold as many events as they safely can this year.
