The Feedbag ...what happened ...and what's happening. From the President

March 3, 2014

Hi Ho Mustangers,

I must admit that I am a day or two late with this months cover letter. Since the weather has been so bad, I have been very jammed up at work, including working this past weekend. I as all of you can say TOO much winter!!!! I am ready for spring and getting out the cars. There were a few highlights to the month of February and we will talk about those outing right now.

The Milwaukee Auto Show was attended by 45 or so club members. We did have a few "NO SHOWS" at this event. Ford Motor Co. was very generous to give us, as a club, an early in to the show, but to commit to come and not show is a slap in the face to Ford and the club. All who wanted to come were told to contact me personally if you could not make it. I did hold 5 tickets for people who would call at the last minute and they did. I turned away people as the tickets were in demand. Great turn out but, we need to address this in the future.

The Model A Swap Meet went well and we saw many folks there. Missing was Wisc. Ford Club and I think Russ was out of town. I wish I had gotten some of their fliers to put on our table. Getting in to the building was a bigger mess that normal. Venders were parked wherever they felt like parking, and we could not even off load at the building. It was still a great day as this event is the start of the car season.

The club dinner is the next outing coming up 3/23, and you still have time to get in on it. See the newsletter for details. As long as you are looking at the newsletter, notice the first club car outing is the BRUNCH RUN on 5/4. Our show is not far behind that, and we always need door prizes. Please contact the people you do business with, and ask if they are willing to support the club through the show. Anything you get can go to Debbie Snyder.

That is all for now, more next month.

Yours in Stangdom,

Tom

P.S. The due date for your 2014 dues was January 1, 2014.

If you have not sent in your $15 and Dues Renewal form, please do it ASAP, or this is your last newsletter.

? Wisconsin Collector Plates ?

Have you been interested in "Collector" plates for your car? I had my bone stock survivor Mustang and bought "Collector" plates as soon as it was 20-years-old because it was a one-time purchase saving money on future registrations AND eliminated the need for the annual emission inspections. Since then, I made significant modifications to the driveline and suspension, and worried about being caught with "Collector" plates, instead of "Hobbyist" plates, but I can now relax with the DMV/DOT news release below.

John Falkner, WEM Secretary

Wisconsin Act 103 is a series of statutory changes signed into law by Governor Walker that go into effect on March 1. The changes have a significant impact on collector plate eligibility and remove barriers to registering former military vehicles. Under previous law to qualify for a collector plate the vehicle had to be 20 years old and not been altered or modified from the original manufacturers specifications.

Act 103 alters the originality requirement for collector plates. The requirement now reads the body has not been altered from the original. In the past, DMV would not issue a collector plate for a vehicle that we recognized had interior modifications, engine modifications, wheel changes etc. All such changes will now be allowed, provided the body has not been altered.

Here are some links that provide more information on the law change:

<http://www.dot.wisconsin.gov/drivers/vehicles/personal/index.htm>

<http://www.dot.wisconsin.gov/drivers/vehicles/personal/special/collecto.htm>

<https://docs.legis.wisconsin.gov/2013/related/acts/103>

I would appreciate it greatly if you could share this information throughout your various clubs and organizations. If questions arise, feel free to reply directly to me, or contact DMV's Special Plates Unit at Special-Plates.dmv@dot.wi.gov.

News from the FVFM Club:

Our club's last meeting was Jan. 25th, at Mackinaws in Green Bay. We had 20 members in attendance. We discussed several items to start planning our June 15th Car Show. We will make some decisions at our next meeting which is scheduled for March 22nd, at the Game Day Sports Bar in Appleton.

I am working on putting together 50 years of Mustangs to participate as the "Feature Car" in the License to Cruise event to be held September 26th in Downtown Appleton the weekend of October Fest. This event attracts thousands of people. I will have a list of the years of Mustangs I am still looking for in the April newsletter along with more details as we will be opening car positions up to outside clubs as we look to fill all of the years.
