From the President

January 3, 2016

Hi Ho Mustangers,

Well this is the last monthly newsletter that I will do. It has been an honor for me to serve as President for the last 12 years. In my time on the board we all have seen a lot of change in not only the Mustang, the club, and ourselves. I have seen the first 4 members of the club (first board) all pass and seen members of the second board pass as well. I have seen the membership grow as well as the show setting a record number of cars to make us the largest all Ford show in the state of Wisconsin!!!!!!!!!!!!!! We will have our ups and downs moving forward and I know that the club will do just fine. Thank You All!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Just a bit of news on club stuff. The car show 2016 meeting was held and we are on our way to what I hope will be a record breaker. As always we need club member to step up to help with the show. We would like to get enough help to run 2-3hour shifts in all depts. This is a high goal, but one that I feel we can make. Please think about it.

The "Pizza Party" has had a few changes as to location and date. We had set the date for February 14th, Valentine's Day, but that proved to not be a good day to try to book a party room. With that being said we moved the date to Sunday February 21st at 4:00PM. The location has also changed to DiCarlo's at 8469 South Howell Ave. This is located between Drexel Ave. and Puetz Rd. RSVP to Tom or Sue Miller is a must at 414-764-6726 by February 15th.

I am starting work on attending the "New Car Auto Show" downtown. I will keep you all posted on this as things develop. That's all for now, more next month from Glenn.

Yours in Stangdom,

Tom
