The Feedbag ...what happened ...and what's happening.

10/1/12

Hi Ho Mustangers,

Sorry about this getting out late as I was surprised with a shot gun start to Gas City a day early. That in of itself is a long story that I will not get into. We had a great time with 3000 lead sleds, hotrods, gassers, and pro-streets. This weekend was topped off with 30 flame throwers at night with the winner at 50 feet. It was truly a great weekend.

This will be a very short note this month as I am late and it is not John's fault. The Door Co. trip is set with an update in the news letter. This October will be a busy month for me as Sue and I have 3 trips on the books. Vern will be in the drivers' seat at the next meeting as I will be at the SEMA show.

In November the planning meeting will be at the New Berlin Ale House with a different start time. Please see the news letter for the correct start time. As in the past we will have a very short informal meeting just before we eat. That's about all for now, more next month before I leave on the trip!!!!

Yours in Stangdom,

Tom

September 24th Meeting Minutes

The September 24th meeting was called to order by President Tom Miller at 7 PM.

No new members were at the meeting this month.

Dick Doria read the treasure's report.

John Falkner read the August meeting minutes.

Old Business:

🐾 Dick Doria said our WEM club logo clothing has arrived and pick up orders after the meeting.

🐾 Kitty Klein said that 10 people came for the Robert's Custard night and had a great time.

🐾 Car Shows

👁️ Oak Creek Lions Club: Tom Miller said it was nice with about 125 cars.

👁️ MACC Fund at Hiller Ford: Jack Winter said it was a nice day and a nice show with about 300 cars, and about half that many across the street at Gus' also.

👁️ Delafield Classic Car Show: John Falkner said Main Street was blocked off and lots of very nice cars in a great setting.

👁️ Murphy & Sikh Car Show at Classic Lanes: George Tresider said it was a big show with a lot of police to honor the officer shot in the line of duty at the Sikh Temple.

Tom Miller conducted the raffle for a WEM club T-shirt, and two WEM club window stickers.

New Business:

🐾 Tom Miller is going to SEMA, so Vern will preside at the October meeting.

🐾 Tom asked members to support the Classic Thunderbird Club show at Schmitt Bros. Ford on Hwy 33 just East of I-43 in Port Washington because they have been very supportive of our club and this is their only fundraiser.

🐾 Jack Winter confirmed the Ale House for our November Planning meeting and the December Car Show Meeting at his house December 2nd at 6:30.

🐾 Door County OTR - Dick Doria said we have 29 cars signed up this year and relayed the following highlights:

👁️ Cars with CB's will be interspersed throughout so we will be able to keep together as much as possible for a group that will probably stretch out to about a mile long at times.

👁️ Dick will pass out the route, and cell phone list for additional help.

👁️ South-sider's meet about 8:30 at the South end of the Pick 'n Save lot on South 27th just North of the WaterStone Bank.

👁️ Leave the Pick 'n Save by 9:00 AM and drive up to the Mequon McDonald's on the East Side of Port Washington Road just North of Mequon Road (Hwy 167) arriving about 9:30.

👁️ Breakfast, snack, whatever at McDonald's, and leave about 10:15 – 10:30 heading North on Port Road to Hwy C.

👁️ Lunch at Susie's in Lincoln is all set for about 1:30 – 2:30.

👁️ Friday hospitality is all set at our Best Western starting at 5:00.

👁️ Saturday is at the Nightingale Supper Club.

🐾 Dick Doria said he will be stocking a few of the generic club T-shirts, and will be placing a small order for some club logo items again shortly.

Tom moved to close the meeting, Jerry seconded, and it was unanimously agreed to. Due to the Packer game, most members decided to forego custard once the gates to the coral were opened, and raced to their TV's for the Packer game. ...and how about that last call in the game? OH, _ _ _ _!!!
